Customer Terms and Conditions

C 4. Background

- C 4.1 The Supplier is a member of the Emergency Pollution Clean-Up Services Prequalification Scheme (the "Scheme") and has agreed to supply the Services listed in the Supply Schedule on receiving an Order from a Customer.
- C 4.2 The Customer requires the provision of Services from the Supplier set out in the Order it has given to the Supplier.
- C 4.3 The Supplier has fully informed itself of all aspects of the Customer's requirements set out in the Order and has responded to the Customer representing that it is able to fill the Order.

C 5. Customer Contract

C 5.1 Parts of Customer Contract

The Customer Contract consists of:

- (a) the Special Conditions if any, specified in the Order;
- (b) the Terms and Conditions in the Customer Contract;
- (c) the Scheme Conditions
- (d) the other parts of the Order;
- (e) the Supply Schedule for the Services;
- (f) the applicable Schedules or attachments; and
- (g) the Dictionary.

If there is an inconsistency between the parts referred to in paragraphs (a) to (g) above, then the provision in the part higher in the list prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

C 6. Term

C 6.1 Term of Customer Contract

The Customer Contract commences on the Customer Contract Commencement Date and continues until expiry of the Customer Contract Term unless terminated earlier in accordance with the Customer Contract.

C 7. Services

C 7.1 General

The Supplier must provide the Services to the Customer to a standard that meets or exceeds any applicable Services Levels.

C 7.2 Formation of Customer Contract

- (a) The Supplier must not provide the Services unless the Customer issues an Order and enters into a Customer Contract.
- (b) A Customer Contract is created upon the Customer and Supplier agreeing to the Order and any Special Conditions. An Order may be initiated by:
 - (i) Requests to the Supplier directly either by phone call or in writing; or
 - (ii) Electronic issue in accordance with the Customer's ordering system;

- (c) As soon as business hours resume on the same day or the next business day, a written Customer Contract Order will be provided to the Supplier in the form attached to this Customer Contract.

C 7.3 Supplier to Fulfil all Customer Contracts

The Supplier will fulfil all requests placed by Eligible Customers during the Term in accordance with these general terms and conditions if the Supplier has accepted the Order either verbally or in writing.

C 7.4 Incidental Services

The Supplier must provide (without additional charge) any incidental or related services not specifically described in the Customer Contract which are required for the proper performance or use of the Services.

C 7.5 Capability Levels

The Supplier must ensure it maintains sufficient capability and resources in relation to Services to meet its obligations under the Customer Contract.

C 7.6 Access to Sites

- (a) In accessing a Site the Supplier must comply with the Customer's policies and procedures applicable to access to that Site.
- (b) The Supplier acknowledges that it will not have possession, lease or licence to any Site.
- (c) At all reasonable times the Supplier must permit the Customer (including its authorised employees and agents) to have access to the Services and to the premises of the Supplier and its Subcontractors. This may include for the purpose of surveillance, audit, inspection, testing, certification and recording of information in any form or for any other reasonable purpose required by the Customer in connection with the Customer Contract.
- (d) Subject to compliance by the Supplier with clause C 7.6(a), the Customer must give the Supplier sufficient access to the Site to allow the Supplier to perform the Services.

C 8. Other Supplier Obligations

C 8.1 Transition in

The Supplier must act in good faith, and do all things necessary, to assume the provision of the Services as required by the Customer Contract, including ensuring that it complies with the requirements of, and dates specified in, any agreed transition in plan.

C 8.2 Conflict of interest

If the Supplier finds itself in a position of conflict of interest in relation to the provision of the Services to the Customer, then the Supplier must immediately notify the Customer of this conflict of interest and the Supplier must immediately resolve the conflict of interest to the Customer's reasonable satisfaction.

C 8.3 Corruption or Unethical Conduct

- (a) Suppliers must comply with the requirements of the Customer Business Ethics Statement, which is available at the link below.
- (b) If a Supplier, or any of its officers, employees, agents or sub-contractors is found to have:
 - (i) offered any inducement or reward to any public servant or employee, agent or subcontractor of the Principal, Customer or the NSW Government in connection with the Customer Contract;

- (ii) committed corrupt conduct in the meaning of the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 1988;
 - (iii) a record or alleged record of unethical behaviour; or not complied with the requirements of the Customer's Business Ethics Statement available at: <http://www.services.nsw.gov.au/about-us/business-ethics>
 - (iv) improper conflicts of interest by the Supplier,
- the Customer reserves the right to terminate the Customer Contract.
- (c) The Customer may, in its discretion, invite the Supplier to provide written comments within a specified time before the Customer terminates the Customer Contract on the basis of this clause.

C 8.4 Standard of performance

The Supplier must perform its obligations under the Customer Contract:

- (a) in accordance with best industry practice;
- (b) with all due care, skill and diligence expected of a professional service supplier and in a proper and workmanlike manner; and
- (c) in a cost effective manner consistent with the required level of quality and performance.

C 8.5 Licences and Approvals

The Supplier must obtain at its own cost all licences, approvals and consents necessary to perform the Services and meets its obligations under the Customer Contract.

Suppliers must meet all their legal requirements as set out in their Environment Protection Licence(s) as required by the Protection of the Environment Operations Act, 1997, any licensing requirements of the Dangerous Goods (Road and Rail Transport) Regulation 2014 and the following;

- (a) Waste transporter licenses
- (b) Must be licenced for dangerous goods - vehicle licences and drivers licences
- (c) All disposal facilities must have appropriate Environment Protection Licences

C 8.6 Compliance with the NSW Government: Small and Medium Enterprise Policy Framework

To the extent that the Small and Medium Enterprise Policy Framework applies to the provision of Services under the Customer Contract, the Supplier must comply with the requirements of the Small and Medium Enterprise Policy Framework as follows:

- (a) Depending on the threshold value of the procurement to be made via competitive quotes, the Supplier acknowledges that it may be required to complete a SME Participation Plan (SMEPP);
- (b) Supplier acknowledges that, where a SMEPP is required in competitive quotes, reliance will be placed on SMEPP in the evaluation of the quotation submitted by the Supplier and in the Customer entering into any agreement with the Supplier;
- (c) Supplier agrees to comply with the requirements and commitments provided for in any future SMEPP tendered by the Supplier and to take all steps reasonably required to enable the Customer to monitor compliance by the Supplier with any future SMEPP; and
- (d) Supplier and the Customer agree that the Customer may establish mechanisms to monitor compliance by the Supplier with the requirements and its commitments under any future SMEPP. The Supplier and the Customer agree that non-compliance by the Supplier with any future SMEPP commitments will entitle the Customer to terminate the Customer Contract for cause. Further, the Supplier agrees that the Customer may take into consideration non-compliance by the Supplier with any future tendered SMEPP when evaluating tenders submitted by the Supplier in the future for other agreements.

C 8.7 Comply with requirements

The Supplier must:

- (a) ensure that the Services comply with all relevant laws that relate to or otherwise apply to the Goods and or Services and Services (as applicable);
- (b) comply with all laws, codes and Standards relating to its supply of Services, (as applicable);
- (c) comply with all Customer standards, policies and procedures notified from time to time (other than any which are expressly inconsistent with the Customer Contract) but including the applicable Government-wide procurement policies and
- (d) comply with all other reasonable requirements and directions of the Customer in relation to the Services, including that the Supplier must reasonably co-operate with other Customer suppliers.

C 9. Change control

C 9.1 Change request

Either party may request a change to:

- (a) the scope or description of any Goods and or Services; or
- (b) the requirements of a Supply Schedule;

(each “Change”) by issuing a notice in writing to the other party.

C 9.2 Change request by the Customer

If a Change is requested by the Customer, the Supplier must provide to the Customer within 10 Business Days of receiving the notice of request, or such other period as the parties may agree, a Change Proposal which complies with clause C 9.5 (Requirements for Change Proposal).

C 9.3 Change request by the Supplier

If the Change is requested by the Supplier, the Supplier must include a Change Proposal with the request for Change or provide the Change Proposal at such later date as the parties may otherwise agree.

C 9.4 Assistance from the Customer

Where the Supplier requires information from the Customer in order to properly prepare a Change Proposal, the Customer will provide all such information reasonably requested within a reasonable period from the date of the request.

C 9.5 Requirements for Change Proposal

Each Change Proposal must:

- (a) set out a full description of the Change; and
- (b) specify all changes to the relevant Contract Price, the relevant timeframes and any other conditions which the Supplier reasonably requires in order to perform the Change and must detail reasons for those changes.

Any adjustment to the Contract Price must be based on the Supplier’s actual direct costs as a result of the Change, including a reasonable profit allowance.

C 9.6 Acceptance or rejection of a Change Proposal

The Customer may accept or reject a Change Proposal at any time within 20 Business Days of receiving the Change Proposal. Where the Customer accepts a Change Proposal, the parties will execute a Change Notice on those terms and the Customer Contract will be varied accordingly, with effect from the date of execution of the Change Notice.

C 9.7 Costs adjustment

On each anniversary of the Customer Contract Commencement Date, the Supplier may seek an adjustment to the Contract Price.

C 10. Confidentiality and privacy

C 10.1 Disclosure of Confidential Information

The Recipient must not disclose the Confidential Information supplied by the Discloser to any person except in the Permitted Circumstances. The Supplier acknowledges that, in accordance with the Permitted Circumstances, the Customer may disclose the Confidential Information to an Eligible Customer to enable the Eligible Customer to piggy back on this Customer Contract.

C 10.2 Permitted disclosures

If the Recipient discloses the Discloser's Confidential Information to a Representative or with the consent of the Discloser under clause C 10.1 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) then:

- (a) it must use its best endeavours to ensure that persons receiving the Confidential Information from it do not disclose the information except in the circumstances permitted in clause C 10.1 (Disclosure of Confidential Information);
- (b) the Discloser may at any time require the persons receiving the Confidential Information to give written undertakings relating to the non-disclosure of the Confidential Information and the Recipient must arrange for all such undertakings to be given promptly; and
- (c) the Recipient must reserve the right to demand immediate delivery of all documents or other materials in its possession, power or control or in the possession, power or control of the third party who has received Confidential Information from it containing or referring to that Confidential Information.

C 10.3 Use of Confidential Information

The Recipient must not use the Discloser's Confidential Information except for the purpose of exercising the Recipient's rights or performing its obligations under the Customer Contract or any other agreement between the parties.

C 10.4 Return of Confidential Information

On the Discloser's request, the Recipient must immediately deliver to the Discloser or destroy all documents or other materials containing or referring to the Confidential Information which are in its possession, power or control, or in the possession, power or control of persons who have received Confidential Information from the Recipient, except to the extent that:

- (a) the Recipient requires the Confidential Information for the purpose of performing its obligations or exercising its rights under the Customer Contract or other agreement between the parties; or
- (b) the Recipient is otherwise entitled to retain the Confidential Information.

C 10.5 No disclosure of the terms of the Customer Contract

Subject to clause C 10.6 (Disclosure of details of Customer Contracts with the private sector), except as otherwise agreed or required by law, any regulatory authority or stock exchange, neither party may disclose the terms of the Customer Contract to any person other than its Representatives on a confidential basis.

C 10.6 Disclosure of details of Customer Contracts with the private sector

The Supplier acknowledges that the Customer may be required to publish certain information concerning the Customer Contract in accordance with s 27 – 35 of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW). If the Supplier reasonably believes that any part of the Customer Contract contains information which is commercial-in-confidence or could reasonably be expected to affect public safety or security, then the Supplier should immediately advise the Customer in writing, identifying the provisions and providing reasons so that the Customer may consider seeking to exempt those provisions from publication.

C 10.7 Publicity

The Supplier may only make press or other announcements or releases about the Customer Contract and the transactions related to it:

- (a) with the express, written approval of the Customer; or
- (b) as required to be made by law or the rules of a stock exchange provided that the Supplier gives the Customer as much prior notice as is reasonably practicable and the opportunity to review and comment on the form and text of the disclosure before the disclosure is made.

C 10.8 Compliance with privacy requirements

The Supplier must:

- (a) comply with the Customer's privacy policies (and each specific privacy policy of the Customer in relation to the collection and/or handling of personal or private information relating to third parties including the obtaining of any necessary consents to its use by the Customer or by third parties) as notified in writing to the Supplier from time to time as if it were bound by that policy;
- (b) comply with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwlth) and all other applicable privacy laws and such other data protection laws as may be in force from time to time which regulate the collection, storage, use and disclosure of information, as if it were regulated by those laws;
- (c) comply with all directions by the Customer:
 - (i) relating to the means by which the Customer complies with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW), the Customer's privacy policies, and all other applicable laws, codes and privacy policies; and
 - (ii) co-operate with the Customer in the resolution of any complaint alleging a breach of such laws, codes or privacy policy.

C 10.9 Provide information

On request by the Customer, the Supplier will promptly provide all reasonable assistance to enable the Customer to comply with its obligations under the Customer Contract and at law, including providing details of any person (for example, a related body corporate or any other private sector entity in which the Supplier has an interest) that:

- (a) will be involved in performing any of the Supplier's obligations under the Customer Contract; or
- (b) will receive a benefit under the Customer Contract.

This clause C 10 survives the termination of the Customer Contract for any reason whatsoever.

C 11. Representatives, reporting and audits

C 11.1 Responsibilities

The Customer Representative and the Supplier Representative will be responsible for the co-ordination and management between the parties of the Customer Contract, including ensuring the performance by the parties of their respective roles and responsibilities.

C 11.2 Reports

The Supplier must provide to the Customer the reports with the content and in the frequency and form (electronic or physical) set out in the Contract Details.

C 11.3 Review meetings

The Supplier Representative must attend meetings with the Customer Representative at a place and time to be notified to the Supplier by the Customer on the frequency set out in the Contract Details to:

- (a) review the performance of the Supplier in relation to the Customer Contract and the Contract Price incurred by the Customer up to that date, including any faults in the provision of any of the Services over the previous review period and any actions undertaken by the Supplier to resolve the relevant faults;

- (b) discuss any other issues in relation to the the Services or the Customer Contract.

C 11.4 Additional reports and review meetings

The Customer may request additional reports and review meetings to those required to be provided under clauses C 11.2 and C 11.3 (as set out in the Contract Details). The Supplier will provide these additional reports and review meetings at no additional cost to the Customer.

C 11.5 Records and inspection

The Supplier must, and must ensure all Subcontractors:

- (a) keep and maintain all necessary Records during the Customer Contract Term and 7 years thereafter;
- (b) make those Records available for inspection and/or audit as reasonably required by the Customer, a regulator, any external auditor or advisor or any of their authorised representatives, during normal business hours. Copies and extracts of any Records may be taken for these purposes;
- (c) permit the Customer to inspect or appoint a third party to inspect the Supplier's premises to confirm compliance with the Customer Contract; and
- (d) provide all appropriate resources and all reasonable assistance required by any person conducting any inspection and/or audit, and fully co-operate with that person in good faith and at the Supplier's sole cost.

C 11.6 Annual audit

The Customer may conduct itself, or appoint a third party to conduct, an audit of the Supplier's performance and compliance with the Customer Contract.

C 11.7 Costs of audit

The auditors' costs incurred by the Customer in the audit under clause C 11.6 (Annual audit) will be paid by the Customer. However, where the auditor objectively determines that the performance by the Supplier falls below the Service Levels or identifies breaches of the Customer Contract by the Supplier, all the costs of the Customer (including third party auditor fees) in respect of that audit will be paid by the Supplier.

C 11.8 Costs

Unless expressly provided otherwise in this clause C 11 (Representatives, reporting and audits), the Customer and the Supplier will each pay their own costs and expenses in connection with this clause C 11 (Representatives, reporting and audits).

C 12. Contract Price, invoices and payments

C 12.2 Contract Price and invoicing

Subject to this clause C 12 (Contract Price, Invoices and payments), in consideration of the Supplier supplying the Goods and or Services and performing the Services, the Customer will pay to the Supplier the Contract Price. The Supplier is not entitled to recover any charge or expenses additional to the Contract Price for the supply of Goods and or Services , the performance of the Services, the provision of any benefit or the performance of any acts, even if required to do so under the Customer Contract, unless the Supply Schedule provides otherwise. The Supplier agrees to supply the Services, at a Price that does not exceed the maximum specified price submitted as part of its application.

C 12.3 Payment of invoices

The Customer is not required to pay any amount to the Supplier unless it has received a correctly rendered invoice for that amount. Unless the Supply Schedule specifies otherwise, the Customer will pay each correctly rendered invoice within 30 days after receipt of that invoice.

All claims for payment made by the Supplier must be in the form of a Tax Invoice and must be substantiated by an itemised account; as per clause 14.1 in the Scheme Conditions. The Supplier must provide any further details in regard to the account that are reasonably requested by the Customer.

If the Customer disputes an invoice amount, the Customer will discuss this situation with the Supplier and where appropriate obtain a credit or an amended invoice.

The Supplier will not be entitled to any credit charge, service fee or any other fee or charge for extending credit or allowing time for the payment by any Customer of money becoming due for the supply of the services.

C 12.4 Interest

Where payment is not made within the period specified in clause C 9.2, the Customer must pay simple interest on the unpaid amount calculated daily from the day after payment was due up to and including the day that payment is made, where interest exceeds A$20. The interest rate is determined under section 22 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996. The appropriate interest rate is available from the NSW Office of State Revenue website at www.osr.nsw.gov.au/taxes/other/taa/rates/.

C 12.5 Invoice Timing

The Supplier will issue an invoice for the Contract Price in accordance with the Invoice Timing or if there is no Invoice Timing established for the relevant Goods and or Services, then:

- (a) in respect of Goods and or Services, on delivery of all Goods and or Services under that Customer Contract; and
 - (b) in respect of Services, on completion of all Services under that Customer Contract,
- unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Customer.

C 12.6 Correctly rendered invoice

For the purposes of the Customer Contract, an invoice is not correctly rendered unless:

- (a) the invoice is a Tax Invoice;
- (b) the Supplier is entitled to issue the invoice under C 9.4 (Invoice Timing);
- (c) the amount claimed in the invoice is correctly calculated under that Customer Contract;
- (d) the invoice includes the Customer purchase order number, cost centre number and general ledger code and is addressed to the Customer Representative and set out in a manner that identifies the Customer Contract, the Goods and or Services and/or Services which the invoice covers and itemises each amount claimed, to a level of detail satisfactory to the Customer acting reasonably;
- (e) the invoice is accompanied by documents that adequately demonstrate to the Customer the Goods and or Services supplied, the Services that were performed and the basis on which the amounts are claimed; and
- (f) the invoice is accompanied by a completed Contractor Statement in the form attached in respect of the period to which the invoice relates.

C 12.7 Disputed invoices

Where the Customer considers that an invoice is not correctly rendered, the Customer will issue to the Supplier within 10 Business Days after receipt of the invoice a notice setting out the reasons and identifying any amounts which are in dispute. The Supplier must then cancel that invoice and reissue the invoice for the undisputed amount.

C 12.8 Amounts due to the Customer

Each amount payable by the Supplier to the Customer under an indemnity, warranty, reimbursement, rebate or refund obligation, or default event under the Customer Contract is a debt due and payable to the Customer on demand. Any demand must be accompanied by any relevant verifying documentation and, if the amount payable is a taxable supply must be a Tax Invoice. At the Customer's option the Supplier must pay or credit the amount to the Customer, within 30 days after issue of the demand or in accordance with the time otherwise set out in the Customer Contract.

C 12.9 Payment does not affect other rights or obligations

Payment of money under clause C 12.2 (Contract Price and invoicing) is not evidence:

- (a) that the Customer accepts any Services under the Customer Contract;
- (b) of any waiver by or estoppel against the Customer in relation to any right or action which the Customer may have at any time against the Supplier;
- (c) that the Supplier has carried out its obligations under the Customer Contract; or
- (d) of the value of any of the Services.

C 12.10 Set-off

A Customer may set off any amount owing by the Customer to the Supplier against any amount due for payment by the Supplier to the Customer under the Customer Contract.

C 12.11 Price Variation

A Supplier may apply to the Customer to vary any fee specified in the price schedule only once in a twelve (12) month period. An application for variation in fees must be in writing and include supporting documentation of any related increase in cost to the Supplier. This supporting documentation must provide evidence for any price movement and demonstrate the market drivers influencing the request e.g. Increase in disposal costs.

The Customer has sole discretion to approve, reject, or seek further evidence in support of any application for a fee variation. The Supplier will be notified by the Customer in writing of the outcome of any application for a fee variation.

The Supplier may only apply the new fees for service supplied after the new fees are approved by the Customer.

C 13. Taxes and GST

C 13.1 Taxes

The Supplier is responsible for all Taxes arising from or relating to the Customer Contract, and must pay Taxes which are imposed on the Supplier arising from or relating to the Customer Contract, except for any income tax or capital gains tax payable by the Customer.

C 13.2 GST

The parties agree that:

- (a) unless expressly stated otherwise, all amounts payable by the Customer to the Supplier under the Customer Contract are inclusive of GST;
- (b) if a supply under the Customer Contract is subject to GST, and the consideration payable or to be provided for the supply is not inclusive of GST, then the party receiving the supply must pay to the party making the supply an additional amount equal to the Amount of the Consideration multiplied by the applicable GST rate;
- (c) the additional amount is payable at the same time as the consideration for the supply is payable;
- (d) if the additional amount differs from the amount of GST payable by the party making the supply, the parties must adjust the additional amount; and

- (e) if a party is entitled to be reimbursed or indemnified under the Customer Contract, the amount to be reimbursed or indemnified does not include any amount for GST for which the party is entitled to an Input Tax Credit.

C 13.3 Withholding tax

If a law requires the Customer to deduct an amount in respect of Taxes from a payment under the Customer Contract, then:

- (a) the Customer agrees to deduct the amount for the Taxes; and
- (b) the Customer agrees to pay an amount equal to the amount deducted to the relevant Government Agency as required by applicable law and give the original receipts to the Supplier.

C 14. Supplier Personnel

C 14.1 Supplier Personnel

The Supplier must ensure that the Supplier Personnel are suitably qualified, experienced and competent for their role in providing the Services.

C 14.2 Removal of Supplier Personnel

The Supplier must promptly remove and replace any particular Supplier Personnel as reasonably requested by the Customer. The parties acknowledge that it is reasonable for the Customer to request the removal or replacement of a Supplier Personnel if there has been any breach of the Customer Contract by that Supplier Personnel.

C 14.3 Information about Supplier Personnel

If requested to do so by the Customer, the Supplier must provide to the Customer:

- (a) a list of any of the Supplier Personnel;
- (b) accurate information about the identity, qualifications, job history and character of each of the Supplier Personnel; and
- (c) completion of any checks of the Supplier Personnel required by the Customer as set out in the Order Form.

C 15. Intellectual Property Rights

C 15.1 Existing Intellectual Property Rights

All Intellectual Property Rights of the parties existing before the date of the Customer Contract will be retained by the relevant party.

C 15.2 New Intellectual Property Rights

The Supplier assigns or will procure the assignment to the Customer, on creation:

- (a) Intellectual Property Rights in all modifications made to the Customer IP by the Supplier or its Subcontractors; and
- (b) if specified in the Order, all other Intellectual Property Rights created by the Supplier or its Subcontractors in the supply of the Goods and or Services or performance of the Services.

C 15.3 Supplier Licence

The Supplier grants to the Customer a, perpetual, royalty-free, non-exclusive, irrevocable licence:

- (a) to Use the Supplier IP (including all Intellectual Property Rights created by the Supplier or its Subcontractors in the supply of the Services or performance of the Services that are not assigned to the Customer) to the extent necessary for the Customer to receive the full use and benefit of the Services; and

- (b) sub-licence any of the rights granted under clause C 15.3(a) to any person, but only in relation to the use or receiving benefits of the Services.

C 15.4 Customer Licence

The Customer grants to the Supplier, and to the extent necessary any relevant Subcontractor, for the Customer Contract Term, a royalty free, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to Use the Customer IP only to the extent necessary to provide the Services.

C 15.5 Confidentiality

Nothing in clause C 15.3 (Supplier Licence) and C 15.4 (Customer Licence) removes or limits the obligations of confidentiality under clause C 7 (Confidentiality and privacy).

C 15.6 Know-how use

Subject to clause C 10 (Confidentiality and privacy) and clause C 15.1 (Existing Intellectual Property Rights), each of the Customer, the Supplier and any Subcontractor will be free to use its general knowledge, skills and experience and any ideas, concepts, know how, methodologies and techniques related to the scope of the Services , or the Customer Contract.

C 15.7 Indemnity

The Supplier must (either directly itself or by procuring Subcontractors to do so):

- (a) at the Customer's request and sole option:
 - (i) defend at no cost to the Customer, all Infringement Claims; or
 - (ii) provide, at no cost to the Customer, all reasonable assistance required by the Customer to defend any Infringement Claim;
- (b) Indemnifies the EPA and the Customer, its officers, employees and contractors against any liability, loss, damage, cost (including the cost of any settlement and legal costs and expenses on a solicitor and own client basis), compensation or expense arising out of or in any way in connection with:
 - (i) an Infringement Claim; or
 - (ii) a default or any unlawful, malicious or negligent act or omission on the Supplier's part, its officers, employees, agents or subcontractors in connection with this Agreement;
- (c) The Supplier's liability is reduced to the extent that any unlawful, malicious or negligent act or omission of the EPA or Customer or their officers, employees or contractors contributed to the loss, damage, cost, compensation or expense;
- (d) Neither party is liable to the other for any Consequential Loss (including under an indemnity).

C 15.8 Other remedies

If, as a result of any Infringement Claim, the Customer is prevented from using the results of the Services, the Supplier must, at the Customer's option and at the Supplier's cost:

- (a) promptly procure for the Customer the right to use the results of the Services (as applicable) on reasonable commercial terms as contemplated under the Customer Contract free of any claim or liability for infringement;
- (b) promptly procure for the Customer replacement Services or materials which comply with the relevant Specifications; or

- (c) promptly modify the Services or materials so that they cease to infringe those rights (while still complying with the applicable Specifications).

C 16. Sub-contracting

C 16.1 Subcontracting

The Supplier must not sub-contract a material part of its obligations under the Customer Contract without the prior written approval of the Customer. The Customer may give or withhold its approval in its absolute discretion and may impose conditions on its approval.

C 16.2 Responsibility for Subcontractors

The Supplier is responsible for all acts and omissions of Subcontractors as if they were those of the Supplier and the Supplier indemnifies the Customer against all costs, expenses and liabilities incurred by the Customer in connection with the acts or omissions of any Subcontractors.

C 17. Warranties and representations

C 17.1 Representations and warranties in respect of Goods and or Services

The Supplier represents and warrants that:

- (a) Services :
 - (i) will meet the Specifications and all other applicable requirements under the Customer Contract;
 - (ii) be of good quality, fit for purpose and free from defects and omissions in material, design or workmanship;
 - (iii) upon title passing to the Customer, will be unused and free from any charge or encumbrance; and
 - (iv) hold all licences required under the Scheme and comply with all licence requirements;
 - (v) will comply with all laws that are related in any way to the Services ;
- (b) the Services:
 - (i) will be performed with due care and skill and in accordance with industry best practice;
 - (ii) will meet the response time agreed between the parties at the time of the Order;
 - (iii) will be used with materials that are:
 - (A) fit for the purpose for which they are supplied and used; and
 - (B) will comply with any applicable specifications or requirements;
- (c) to the best of its knowledge, no conflict of interest of the Supplier, its employees, agents or Subcontractors exists or is likely to arise in the performance of its obligations under the Customer Contract;
- (d) the Supplier and the Supplier Personnel will not infringe the Intellectual Property rights or Moral Rights of any person in providing the Services or otherwise performing the Customer Contract;
- (e) the Services and their use will not:
 - (i) result in a breach of any law or mandatory codes;
 - (ii) infringe any person's rights (including Intellectual Property Rights and Moral Rights);
 - (iii) constitute a misuse of any person's confidential information; or
 - (iv) result in the Supplier or any Related Bodies Corporate of the Supplier breaching any obligation that it owes to any person.

C 17.2 Notification of non-compliance

As soon as practicable after becoming aware of any matter which is likely to impact upon its ability to comply with a warranty or representation in this clause C 17 (Warranties and representations), the Supplier must give written notice to the Customer detailing that matter and its likely impact on the Supplier's ability to comply with this clause C 17 (Warranties and representations).

C 18. Insurance

C 18.1 Insurance

Before the Customer Contract Commencement Date the Supplier must hold, and thereafter maintain, the policies of insurance listed in the Order during the Customer Contract Term, on terms that are reasonably satisfactory to the Customer.

Where the Supplier is insured under its parent company's insurance policy, the parent company's insurance policy must clearly indicate that it applies and extends coverage to the Supplier.

As set out in the Contract Details, Suppliers must have insurance including;

- (a) Public / Products Liability Insurance;
- (b) Workers compensation insurance;
- (c) Motor vehicle Insurance; and
- (d) Professional Indemnity Insurance.

C 18.2 Evidence of insurance

On request by the Customer, the Supplier must provide certificates of currency proving that the policies of insurance required under the Customer Contract have been effected and are current. A certificate of currency provided under this clause must be issued by the insurance company providing insurance and must contain all details reasonably requested by the Customer, including a summary of all risks covered and any exclusions.

C 18.3 Supplier notification

The Supplier must notify the Customer within two Business Days of any event which affects or may affect the Supplier's compliance with this clause C 18 (Insurance), including any cancellation of a policy or reduction of limit of coverage below that required by the Customer Contract.

The Supplier must as soon as practicable, inform the Customer in writing of the occurrence of an event that may give rise to a claim under a policy of insurance in connection with this Customer Contract and must ensure that the Customer is kept fully informed of subsequent action and developments concerning the claim.

C 19. Liability

C 19.1 The Customer's liability

Subject to clause C 19.3 (No limitation):

- (a) the aggregate liability of the Customer to the Supplier under or in respect of the Customer Contract whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or any other cause of action, is limited to the Customer Liability Cap; and
- (b) the Customer will not be liable to the Supplier under or in respect of any Customer Contract whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or any other cause of action for Consequential Loss.

C 19.2 Supplier's liability

Subject to clause C 19.3 (No limitation):

- (a) the aggregate liability of the Supplier to the Customer under or in respect of the Customer Contract whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or any other cause of action is limited to an amount equal to the Supplier Liability Cap; and
- (b) the Supplier will not be liable to the Customer under or in respect of any Customer Contract whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or any other cause of action for Consequential Loss.

C 19.3 No limitation

Nothing in the Customer Contract operates to limit or exclude:

- (a) liability that cannot by law be limited or excluded;
- (b) the liability of either party in respect of personal injury (including sickness and death) or real or tangible property loss or damage;
- (c) liability of a party in respect of a breach of clause C 10 (Confidentiality and privacy);
- (d) the Supplier's liability under clause C 15 (Intellectual Property Rights);
- (e) liability of either party for unlawful or illegal acts or conduct; or
- (f) the Customer's liability to pay such of the Contract Price as is due and payable.

C 19.4 Consequential Loss Definition

- (a) Subject to clause C 19.4(b) Consequential Loss:
 - (i) means any loss, not arising naturally, that is according to the usual course of things, from the relevant breach act or omission, whether or not such loss may reasonably be supposed to have been in the contemplation of the parties, at the time they entered the Customer Contract, as the probable result of the relevant breach; and
 - (ii) includes loss of profit or loss of anticipated savings.
- (b) Consequential Loss does not include:
 - (i) additional internal administrative and management costs and expenses;
 - (ii) expenditure or fees rendered unnecessary;
 - (iii) costs of procuring replacement Goods and or Services or Services;
 - (iv) cost of repairing Goods and or Services ; and
 - (v) legal fees on a full indemnity basis.

C 19.5 Financial security

If specified in a Supply Schedule, the Supplier must provide the financial security in the amount and form specified in that Supply Schedule. The Customer will hold the financial security as security for the due and proper performance of all the obligations of the Supplier under the Customer Contract, and the relevant Supply Schedule will set out the terms that will apply to the use and application of the financial security.

C 20. Force Majeure

C 20.1 Notice of a Force Majeure Event

A party does not breach the Customer Contract and is not liable to the other party for a delay or failure to perform an obligation to the extent it results from a Force Majeure Event provided that the party affected by the Force Majeure Event gives the other party a written notice which:

- (a) sets out details of the Force Majeure Event;
- (b) identifies the nature and extent of the obligations affected by the Force Majeure Event;

- (c) advises the period of time during which the affected party estimates that it will not be able to perform or will be delayed in performing its obligations; and
- (d) provides details of the action that it has taken or proposes to take to remedy the situation.

C 20.2 Obligations of affected party

A party affected by a Force Majeure Event must:

- (a) take all reasonable steps to avoid, remove or limit the effects of the Force Majeure Event on its performance of the suspended obligations as quickly as possible;
- (b) promptly re-commence performing the suspended obligations as soon as reasonably possible and notify the other party when this occurs; and
- (c) shall endeavour to continue to perform its obligations under the contract so far as reasonably practicable (and in accordance with good operating procedures).

C 21. Termination

C 21.1 Termination for cause

The Customer may terminate the Customer Contract in full or in part immediately on notice to the Supplier if:

- (a) the Supplier breaches that Customer Contract and:
 - (i) the breach is not capable of remedy; or
 - (ii) the breach is capable of remedy and the Supplier fails to remedy the breach within 10 Business Days, or such longer time as the Customer states, of receiving notice from the Customer requiring the breach to be remedied;
- (b) the Supplier becomes Insolvent;
- (c) the Supplier assigns or purports to assign its rights otherwise than as permitted by that Customer Contract; or
- (d) the Supplier undergoes a Change of Control.
- (e) where proceedings or investigations are commenced or threatened by the Independent Commission Against Corruption or similar public body against the Supplier including for corrupt conduct or for collusive pricing;

C 21.2 Termination on notice

The Customer may terminate the Customer Contract in full or in part by giving not less than 60 days' written notice to the Supplier.

C 21.3 Force Majeure

If:

- (a) a delay or failure to perform a party's obligations due to a Force Majeure Event exceeds 20 Business Days; or
- (b) if the Customer (in relation to the Customer Contract) reasonably considers the Force Majeure Event will not cease within that period, then the Customer may immediately terminate the Customer Contract on notice to the Supplier.

C 21.4 Termination of the Customer Contract by Supplier for cause

The Supplier may only terminate the Customer Contract if the Customer has failed to pay an amount due to the Supplier under that Customer Contract which is not the subject of a bona fide dispute within 40 Business Days of receiving a correct notice claiming that the amount is overdue and stating that the Supplier proposes to exercise its rights under this clause C 21.4 (Termination of the Customer Contract by Supplier for cause) if payment is not made.

C 22. Events following termination or expiry

C 22.1 Obligations on termination of a Customer Contract

On termination of the Customer Contract for any reason, the Supplier must pay that Customer:

- (a) any fees paid by the Customer to the Supplier in advance for Services and Services not yet supplied under that Customer Contract (as applicable); and
- (b) any Service Credits accrued up to the date of termination under that Customer Contract.

C 22.2 Early termination charges

If the Customer terminates the Customer Contract (or part of the Customer Contract) for convenience pursuant to clause C 21.2 (Termination on notice), then if the Supplier is able to demonstrate to the Customer's reasonable satisfaction that prior to receiving notice of termination:

- (a) the Supplier has irrevocably acquired or committed with a third party to acquire Services for the purposes of fulfilling the terminated Customer Contract (or part of it), then the Customer must either (at the Customer's election):
 - (i) acquire those Services from the Supplier for the applicable Contract Price; or
 - (ii) reimburse the Supplier for the Supplier's out of pocket costs for those Services ; or
- (b) the Supplier has incurred or irrevocably committed with a third party to incur costs for the purposes of providing Services under the terminated Customer Contract (or part of it) and the Supplier has not at the time of termination become entitled to charge for those Services, then the Customer must reimburse the Supplier for those costs which the Supplier incurs.

C 22.3 Mitigation

The Supplier must take all reasonable steps to mitigate the costs referred to in this clause C 22.2 (Early termination charges) and the Customer will not be required to pay costs to the extent that they could have been avoided or reduced by taking such steps. The Supplier must provide the Customer with evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Customer to substantiate any claim under this clause C 22.2 (Early termination charges).

C 22.4 Disengagement Period

For 6 months following the expiry or termination of a Customer Contract (or part thereof), the Supplier will provide such assistance reasonably requested by the Customer for the supply of the Goods and or Services and Services (as applicable) to continue without interruption to facilitate an orderly, prompt and efficient transition to an alternative service provider or to the Customer, including:

- (a) acting in good faith to the Customer and providing reasonable co-operation with a third party supplier nominated by the Customer, and
- (b) providing the Customer data, information and materials that may be required to enable transacting with a new provider as requested by the Customer.

C 22.5 Survival

Clauses C 10 (Confidentiality and privacy), C 12 (Contract Price, invoices and payments), , C 13 (Taxes and GST), C 15 (Intellectual Property Rights), C 19 (Liability), C 25 (Disputes), C 26 (General) and Supply Schedules survive the termination or expiry of the Customer Contract, as do any rights and remedies accrued before termination or expiry.

C 23. Notices

C 23.1 Form

Unless stated otherwise in the Customer Contract, all notices, certificates, consents, approvals, waivers and other communications in connection with the Customer Contract must be in writing.

C 23.2 Other notices and communications

A notice, consent, request or any other communication under the Customer Contract must be:

- (a) left at the address of the addressee, or
- (b) sent by prepaid post (airmail if posted to or from a place outside Australia) to the address of the addressee; or
- (c) sent by facsimile to the facsimile number of the addressee specified in the Order or notified by the receiving party; or
- (d) sent by email to the email address specified in the Order or as notified by the receiving party.

C 23.3 Time of receipt

A notice, consent, request or any other communication is deemed to be received:

- (a) if by delivery, when it is delivered;
- (b) if posted, the earlier of the date of receipt and three Business Days after posting if within Australia or seven, if posted to or from a place outside Australia;
- (c) if a facsimile, the earlier of the time the addressee receives and the next Business Day after the time of dispatch if the sender receives a transmission report which confirms that the facsimile was sent in its entirety to the facsimile number of the recipient; and
- (d) if an email, the earlier of when the email is opened by the recipient and the next Business Day after the time at which it enters the recipient's system (provided that the sender does not receive a delivery failure or out of office message).

C 24. Assignment, novation and piggybacking

C 24.1 Assignment or novation by the Customer

The Customer may assign any of its rights under the Customer Contract, or may novate its rights and obligations under the Customer Contract:

- (a) without the consent of the Supplier to any department, government agency or any other body created by or under legislation of the State of New South Wales for the purpose of administering the functions or discharging the role of the Customer or to any government sector agency within the meaning given to that term in the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 (NSW); or
- (b) with the consent of the Supplier, which must not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, to any other person.

The Supplier must execute all documents necessary to give effect to any novation or assignment permitted under this clause C 24.1 (Assignment or novation by the Customer).

C 24.2 Assignment or novation by the Supplier

The Supplier must not assign its rights under the Customer Contract or purport to novate its rights and obligations under the Customer Contract without the prior written consent of the EPA and or Customer.

The Supplier acknowledge that the EPA and/ or the Customer may make financial checks and due diligence checks on the entity proposing to take over this Customer Contract before determining whether or not to give consent to the assignment or novation.

C 24.3 Piggybacking by other NSW Agencies

If any government agency (as defined in the Public Works and Procurement Act 1912 (NSW)) or a public body (as defined in clause 6 of the Public Works Regulation 2014) requires the Supplier to supply to it the Services (other than under this Customer Contract) then the Supplier agrees that it will enter into a separate contract with that government agency or public body on terms provided in this Customer Contract as though the Customer entered into this Customer Contract on behalf of that government agency, having regard only to necessary changes to reflect that the Services are to be supplied to the government agency or public body.

C 25. Disputes

C 25.1 Dispute Notice

Either party may give written notice of a Dispute to the other party (“Dispute Notice”). A party giving a Dispute Notice must provide details of the history and circumstances of the Dispute and give reasons for why the party is disputing the issue.

C 25.2 Escalation

At the expiration of 5 Business Days from the date of the Dispute Notice, unless the Dispute has otherwise settled, the Dispute may be submitted to the dispute resolution process described in clause C 25.3 (Process).

C 25.3 Process

Any Dispute submitted to the dispute resolution process will be dealt with in the following manner:

- (a) The Dispute will be referred initially to the Customer Representative and the Supplier Representative. The parties’ representatives will attempt to settle the Dispute within 5 Business Days of the referral;
- (b) if the Customer Representative and the Supplier Representative are unable to resolve the Dispute within those 5 Business Days, or other such period as is agreed, the Dispute will be referred to the parties’ respective senior management at a level deemed appropriate by each party given the nature of the Dispute; and
- (c) if the Dispute remains unresolved after a further 5 Business Days of the period referred to in clause C 25.3(b), or other such period as is agreed, the parties will refer the Dispute to mediation by a single mediator in accordance with the procedure described below in clause C 25.4 (Mediation).

C 25.4 Mediation

Subject to this clause, if the parties agree to refer a Dispute to mediation, the mediation will be administered by the Australian Commercial Disputes Centre (“ACDC”) and will be conducted in accordance with the ACDC Mediation Guidelines which set out the procedures to be adopted, the process of selection of the mediator and the costs involved and the terms of those Guidelines are incorporated into this Customer Contract. In the event that the Supplier is a “small business” (being an Australian or New Zealand based firm that has an annual turnover of under $2 million in the latest financial year), then the parties agree to refer the Dispute to the Small Business Commissioner for mediation.

C 25.5 Right to terminate and interlocutory relief

C 26.6 Variation and waiver

A provision of the Customer Contract or a right created under it, may not be waived or varied except in writing, signed by the party or parties to be bound.

C 26.7 Indemnities

The indemnities in the Customer Contract are continuing obligations, independent from the other obligations of the parties under the Customer Contract and continue after the Customer Contract ends. It is not necessary for a party to incur expense or make payment before enforcing a right of indemnity under the Customer Contract.

C 26.8 Construction

No rule of construction applies to the disadvantage of a party because that party was responsible for the preparation of, or seeks to rely on, the Customer Contract or any part of it.

C 26.9 Costs

The parties agree to pay their own legal and other costs and expenses in connection with the preparation, execution and completion of the Customer Contract and other related documentation except for stamp duty.

C 26.10 Counterparts

The Customer Contract may be executed in counterparts. All counterparts when taken together are to be taken to constitute one instrument.

C 26.11 Governing law and jurisdiction

The Customer Contract is governed by the law in force in New South Wales. Each party submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.

C 26.12 Severability

If any part or provision of the Customer Contract is judged invalid or unenforceable in a jurisdiction it is severed for that jurisdiction and the remainder of the Customer Contract will continue to operate.

C 26.13 Further assurance

Each party agrees to do anything the other party asks (such as obtaining consents, signing and producing documents and getting documents completed and signed):

- (a) to bind the party and any other person intended to be bound under the Customer Contract; and
- (b) to give effect to the intentions of the parties and the transactions contemplated by the Customer Contract, including execution and delivery of documents and other instruments.

C 26.14 Entire agreement

The Customer Contract constitutes the entire agreement of the parties about its subject matter and supersedes any previous understandings or agreements on that subject matter.

Notes

1. A Supplier is any person or company who carries out work under a contract of any kind for any business of the Customer. References to “Subcontractor” and “Principal Contractor” in the legislation mentioned below have been changed in this Statement to “Supplier” and “Customer” respectively to avoid confusion.
2. This form is prepared for the purposes of section 127 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 (“IRA”), section 175B of the Workers Compensation Act 1987 (“WCA”) and Schedule 2 Part 5 of the Payroll Tax Act 2007 (“PTA”). These provisions allow the Customer to withhold payment from a Supplier without any penalty unless and until the Supplier provides to the Customer a Statement declaring that:
 - a. All workers compensation insurance premiums payable up to and including the date(s) on the Statement have been paid, and all premiums owing during the term of the contract will be paid; and
 - b. all remuneration payable to relevant employees for work under the contract has been paid; and
 - c. all payroll tax payable relating to the work undertaken has been paid.
3. Section 127 of the IRA says that the Statement must state the period to which it relates. For sequential statements ensure that the dates provide continuous coverage.
4. The person signing this declaration must be a person who is authorised by the Supplier either to sign this Statement (or to sign statements of this kind) and must be a person who is in a position to know the truth of the statements. The Supplier's principal accounting/financial officer may be appropriate. An individual project manager will normally not be appropriate. If the Supplier is a company then the person signing should be a director unless the company has delegated the power to sign such statements to another person (e.g. the principal accounting officer).
5. A Statement is not required where the Customer is making payment to a receiver, liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy (see section 127(10) of the IRA, section 175B(12) of the WCA and Sch 2 Part 5 (20) of the PTA).
6. Section 127(6) of the IRA says that references to payments to workers means all types of remuneration /payment to which they are entitled.
7. As of 30 June 2011, an employer is exempt from taking out workers compensation insurance if the employer pays less than $7500 annually on wages, does not employ an apprentice or trainee and is not a member of a group for workers compensation purposes.

Statement Retention

The Customer will keep a copy of this Statement for 7 years. If the Supplier obtains a similar statement from its subcontractor then the Supplier must keep that statement for 7 years.

Offences in respect of a false Statement

Knowingly giving a false statement may be an offence under section 127(8) of the IRA, section 175B of the WCA and Sch 2 Part 5 clause 18(8) of the PTA.
