

Categories by Regions detail on areas where SA NSW typically requires independent assessment of mine subsidence claims - based on local planning areas are defined as shown below:

Subsidence Advisory NSW only requires independent assessment of claims for damage caused by mine subsidence in certain Local Government Areas (LGA). The red bolded LGAs shown below are those most likely to require an independent assessment by a service provider on this prequalification scheme.

Organisations who place a mark in the corresponding box in eTendering are indicating their willingness to respond to tender opportunities in the red bolded areas within that region.

Please ensure that the category and capability selections marked here match those in your eTendering application.
